ELECTION FORECASTS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Gov. Odell says that Parker's plurality in Greater New York must exceed one hundred and forty thousand to carry the State. PRESIDENT GOES HOME.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt left for Oyster Bay yesterday to cast his vote.

ADDRESS OF WARNING TO REPUBLICAN WATCHERS

To the Republican watchers and clerks of the Fourth District:
Reliable information is received to the effect that a certain element of the opposition proposes in its desperation to resort to fraud and violence in effort to defeat us at the polls today.

This element includes the ex-convicts and other roughs who have been so active during the past few days on behalf of the Democratic party and some of its auxiliaries.

These worthies have planned to introduce here the slum tactics by using repeaters and trying various sorts of illegal voting. They threaten to make disturbances at a number of precincts at the closing of the polls, hoping to capture ballot boxes or create confusion that will result in injury to our party.

Officials, watchers and clerks, be vigilant and fearless. The Republican party has always stood for a free ballot and a fair count. With these today we shall carry the Fourth District for our entire ticket by a larger majority than ever before.

LORRIN ANDREWS.

Chairman Fourth District Representative Committee.

REPUBLICANS CONCLUDE DEMOCRACY AT AALA PARK

Campaign With Oratory At Orpheum Theater. Strong Appeals By Leaders of the Party.

A great crowd of Republicans gathered in and about the Orpheum theater last night to listen to the last arguments on campaign issues and candidates. The crowd in the theater was of record-breaking capacity, while the addresses were excellent throughout. Many telling points in favor of the Republican party and the administration were made, and many equally telling ones thrust into the thin policies of the Democratic and Home Rule parties.

The principal speakers were Delegate Kalaniana'ole and Stephen Desha. The address of the latter was a magnificent appeal to the Hawaiians to vote for Kuhio and the whole ticket. The Hawaiian orator was at his best in story-telling and beautiful descriptions of the Hawaiian Islands, although he came from a sick bed to say a last word in favor of the Prince.

Chairman Robertson presided and upon the stage behind him were Delegate Kuhio, Stephen Desha, J. M. Dowsett, E. Faxon Bishop, Frank Andrade, E. W. Quinn, Jack Lucas, A. Lewis, Jr., J. W. Cathcart, E. A. Douthitt and others. Between addresses Ellis's quintette rendered several campaign songs.

Chairman Robertson opened the meeting with an appeal to voters to stand by the straight ticket. He said he had already made a forecast of the result today. He noticed also that Democrats were claiming a sweeping victory. Mr. Robertson called attention to some Democratic defeats in the last election—Prince David, Cornwell, etc. He said there was but one thing for every true Republican to do today, and that was to vote straight.

At this juncture Prince Kuhio entered the stage, and was greeted with three ringing cheers.

Last evening Aala Park was the scene of great political activity. The Republicans were at one end and the Democrats at the other, with a Home Rule meeting in the center. Hulas seemed to be the order of the day, or rather night. The Republicans had a couple of old time dancers from Waianae and a quartet of girls. At the Democratic meeting things were not so elaborate, the performers being volunteers. The hit of the evening was a young dancing boy about five who certainly showed remarkable ability for his age. He hulaed for the Democrats.

The speeches were all a general rehash of those already given. The first Democratic speaker was Mrs. Fuah, who came all the way from Waianae to attend the last rally. She said that no party could blackguard the others for having men who had shifted from one party to another as the shifting was not confined to any one party. She then sailed in to young Kalauokalani for running down Wilcox after he was dead. Next she went for the Republicans and Home Rule, saying that the Home Rule party were chasing a rainbow. There was no National Home Rule party and they would never accomplish anything. The Democratic party is the one that regards the laboring men and should be supported. The woman then eulogized Iaukea and said he was the only one that would fulfill his promises.

NAUHA.

Nauha, the "ruler of the fish of the sea," then made a very popular speech. He is one of the Democratic candidates of the Fourth District. He began by quoting Kamehameha's famous order, "Advance men until you lie in your graves." (Continued on page 4.)

INQUIRY FOLLOWS RUSSIAN FIRING ON GERMAN VESSEL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The Navy will be invited to send a representative to the Dogger bank inquiry. Admiral Dewey will probably go.

BERLIN, Oct. 28.—A dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger dated Geestemunde, October 27, 11:55 p. m., says: "The fishing vessel Sonntag, which arrived here today, reported that it had been fired upon for two and a half hours off Dogger bank, but not hit."

Following is the story of Captain Hachner of the Sonntag: "On October 21st we were on the Horn's reef fishing ground, on the west coast of Jutland. In the forenoon five large Russian ships passed and in the evening nine more. North of us was a large freight steamer. At 8:30 o'clock we were lighted by a reflector, and immediately afterward there fell the first shells in our neighborhood. The Russian vessels fired up to eighty shots a minute in all directions. Toward 9:30 the freighter approached us, drawing the fire upon itself. In the light of the reflector we observed shells striking close to this steamer. We then observed another reflector southward."
